Once again, the baseball spotlight will be shining brightly on Kansas City in 2012 as the Royals will play host to an "All-Star Summer".

The 2012 Midsummer Classic on July 10 will be the 83rd All-Star Game. It will be the third played in Kansas City and the first since July 24, 1973, when the National League won, 7-1, at what was then known as Royals Stadium. That contest marked the 24th and final All-Star appearance by Hall of Famer Willie Mays. The other All-Star Game in Kansas City was played at Municipal Stadium on July 11, 1960, won 5-3 by the National League in the first of two All-Star Games played that year (also Yankee Stadium on July 13).

"On behalf of Major League Baseball, I am pleased to announce that the 2012 All-Star Game will be hosted by the Kansas City Royals and be played at beautiful Kauffman Stadium," Commissioner Selig said on June 16, 2010 when the city was awarded the Game. "This is a special day for the Kansas City Royals organization, the local community and the great baseball fans of Kansas City who will make this event a tremendous success."

"This is a tremendous honor for our organization and every Kansas City Royals fan in our region," said David Glass, Owner and Chairman of the Kansas City Royals. "This will be a golden opportunity for the rest of the baseball world to discover what we already know, that the new-improved Kauffman Stadium is one of the great facilities in all of sports and will be prepared to showcase baseball's best in the 2012 All-Star Game. The All-Star festivities have changed exponentially since the game was last played here when our ballpark opened in 1973 and I can assure you we will be terrific caretakers of a great week of activities leading up to the Midsummer Classic. I would also like to thank Commissioner Selig for putting his faith in us to display one of baseball's gem events."

The All-Star Game on July 10, scheduled for 7 p.m. CT and televised on FOX, will be the climax of a five-day celebration of baseball in Kansas City. The week begins on Friday, July 6 with the MLB All-Star FanFest, an interactive baseball theme park which is expected to draw over 100,000 fans to the Kansas City Convention Center. The FanFest runs through Tuesday, July 10. Sunday, July 8 will feature the MLB All-Star Charity 5K & Fun Run in the morning and then Taco Bell All-Star Sunday that afternoon and evening. All-Star Sunday at Kauffman Stadium includes the XM All-Star Futures Game and the Taco Bell All-Star Legends & Celebrity Softball Game. Monday, July 9 is Gatorade All-Star Workout Day at Kauffman which features the State Farm Home Run Derby.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas City hosted an MLB All-Star Game for the first time on July 11, 1960. The 28th version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Municipal Stadium with the National League prevailing, 5-3. Two days later, the N.L. would win once again, shutting out the A.L., 6-0, at Yankee Stadium.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 30,619 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox.

Willie Mays led off for the N.L. and tripled to right. Mays scored when the next batter, Bob Skinner, singled. After consecutive outs from future Hall of Famers Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron, another future Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, homered to give the N.L. a 3-0 lead.

The N.L. added a fourth run in the second inning on catcher Del Crandall's solo home run and a fifth in the third frame as future Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski drove home Banks with a single to left.

Another future member of the Hall of Fame, Al Kaline, blasted a 2-run home run in the eighth to bring the A.L. within two runs at 5-3, but that was as close as they were able to get.

No MVP was named, but Mays ended up 3-for-4 with a run scored and Banks added two hits, drove in two and scored two runs.

The game featured 15 future Hall of Famers (plus Hall of Fame managers Walter Alston and Al Lopez), all indicated in bold in the box score. Ted Williams, who would retire at the end of the season, grounded out to second base as a pinch hitter in the second inning. Cardinals legend Stan Musial recorded an infield single as a pinch hitter in the road half of the eighth.

Al Lopez managed the American League and was joined by coaches Tony Cuccinello and Don Gutteridge. The National League was managed by Walter Alston, who was joined by coaches Solly Hemus and Fred Hutchinson.

Finally, Hall of Fame umpire Nestor Chylak umped both second and first base in 1960 and then returned to Kansas City to umpire home plate during the 1973 All-Star Game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas City was the site of the 40th Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1973 where the National League handed the American League a 7-1 loss.

The game marked the final All-Star appearance of Willie Mays and was attended by members of the 1st All-Star Game in 1933, including Carl Hubbell, Bill Hallahan, Lefty Gomez, Dick Bartel, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Dykes and Charlie Gehringer.

The A.L. jumped out to a 1-0 lead after a double from Reggie Jackson and an RBI single from KC's Amos Otis. However, the N.L. All-Stars countered with 2 runs in the top of the 3rd and also scored in the 4th, 5th and 6th innings. Rick Wise earned the win for the N.L. after allowing 2 hits and 1 ER in 2.0 innings of work.

Bobby Bonds was named the game's MVP, coming off the bench to go 2-for-2 with a 2-run homer in the 5th inning, giving the N.L. a 5-1 lead.

Johnny Bench hit one of the most mammoth home runs in the history of the Mid-Summer Classic, launching a 480-foot solo shot off Bill Singer in the 4th inning over the left field concourse. His homer still stands as the longest in Kauffman Stadium history.

The game featured 17 future Hall of Famers (plus three Hall of Fame managers), including Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rod Carew, and Brooks Robinson to name a few. The game also featured three Royals - Amos Otis, John Mayberry and Cookie Rojas, and one future Royals manager, Buddy Bell, who tripled as a pinch hitter in the third inning. Otis led the A.L. players, going 2-for-2 with the team's only RBI.

Dick Williams managed the American League and was joined by coaches Whitey Herzog and Chuck Tanner. The National League was managed by Sparky Anderson, who was joined by coaches Gene Mauch and Bill Virdon.

Kauffman Stadium (then Royals Stadium) was the host of the 1973 All-Star Game which featured 17 future Hall of Famers.

The Kansas City Royals will celebrate their 40th season at Kauffman Stadium in 2012. Kauffman has always been one of the crown jewel ballparks of Major League Baseball. Having hosted 68,898,648 fans since 1973, "The K", with its signature look, has proudly stood the test of time.

After years of planning and design, the Royals unveiled an exciting $250 million renovation of a true Kansas City landmark prior to the 2009 season. Visitors enjoy an improved Kauffman Stadium experience with unsurpassed amenities and state-of-the-art technology that touch each and every fan entering the park.

After debuting the spectacular 84' x 104' Crown Vision HD scoreboard for the 2008 season, the Royals put the finishing touches on one of the most majestic and visually exciting scoreboards in the world with a brand-new interactive crown rising about 40 feet above Crown Vision.

Upon entering through the larger and grander entrances, fans have a chance to explore the stadium via a 360-degree expanded concourse while still keeping tabs on the action on the field. An increase in both concessions and restrooms limit the time spent away from your seats.

The Outfield Experience provides the fans of Kansas City entertainment for all ages. In addition, the views of the field are spectacular and give fans several brand-new locations to take in a game. New in 2012 is the largest in-stadium solar array in MLB as part of an energy partnership with KCP&L. The 120 panels on the Outfield Experience canopy will provide approximately 36,000 kWh of renewable energy each year.

The outfield overhaul now gives Royals fans a chance to sit and enjoy the game from a venue not previously offered. The Outfield Box seats in left-center field sit directly behind the outfield wall and in front of the world-famous fountains. Those seats hug the Miller Lite Fountain Bar, which is built on the old JumboTron base. In front of the fountains in left-center are the Sonic Slam seats. Right-center field offers a brand-new "standing room only" area between the outfield wall and the fountains, called the Pepsi Party Porch. This area has become among the most popular on hot summer days and nights since, at times, they are in the "splash zone" of the fountains.

The left-field area is home to the new 7,000-square foot Hall of Fame, which opened in July of 2009. The Hall of Fame features numerous exciting and interactive exhibits as well as Royals memorabilia that will delight Royals fans.

Travel behind the Hall of Fame and fans will find the kids area complete with the U.S. Toy Little K with a field turf surface. In addition, there is state-of-the-art batting and pitching cages presented by Farmers Insurance, the New Era Cap Store, five holes of mini-golf at the Sluggerrr's Putt-Putt, a Royals-themed carousel, the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Base Run, the MLB2K12 Game Lounge and several kids-friendly food options, including a Sheridan's Signature store.

Fans move along the outfield "Walk of Fame" toward the All-Star BBQ pavilion and Rivals restaurant in right field, which boasts upscale sports bar food, the FSKC pre and post-game studios and the Budweiser Patio.

The second level of the stadium houses new Dugout concourses, concessions and restrooms.

The third level, or ground level of the stadium, feature wider concourses, new fan amenities, a new Diamond Club premium seating area and 5,000-square foot retail store.

The new Loge Level has several suite options to fit any budget while the Hy-Vee Level has been completely renovated to include wider concourses, a food court, new concessions, new restrooms and a retail store.

The new Kauffman Stadium has become a breathtaking fusion of energetic surroundings and an intimate place to watch Royals Baseball.

THE HISTORY OF KAUFFMAN STADIUM

Opened as Royals Stadium on April 10, 1973, Kauffman is recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 All-Star Game, three no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84 and '85 and seven World Series tilts in 1980 and 1985. The facility was officially renamed in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993.

Before the 2004 season, the outfield fences in the gaps and in straight-away center field were moved back 10 feet to their original dimensions of 387 and 410, respectively, making Kauffman Stadium one of the most spacious parks in Major League Baseball. In addition, the warning track was changed to a natural surface, and the height of the fence is now at 8 feet. The fences were moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen prior to the 1995 season and lowered from 12 feet to 9 feet. Also at that time, a grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world.

In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends near the left field corner.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added.

Ewing M. Kauffman

The renaming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. "Mr. K" also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbred into the Royals organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man of the Year, an induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and was one of 20 finalists for enshrinement in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.

FELIPE PAULINO

Right-handed Pitcher

HEIGHT: 6-3 WEIGHT: 270 BATS/THROWS: R/R
BORN: October 5, 1983 (Santo Domingo, DR)
RESIDES: Pearland, TX OPENING DAY AGE: 28
M.L. SERVICE: 3 years, 163 days SIGNED THRU: 2012
ACQUIRED: Trade with the Colorado Rockies: May 26, 2011

2011

- Felipe was acquired by the Royals from the Rockies on May 26 for cash considerations and, after one relief appearance, moved into the starting rotation, making 20 starts...pitched exclusively in relief for the Rockies.
- Struck out 119 in 124.2 innings with KC, a ratio of 8.59 per 9.0 innings which is the fifth-best in club history (min. 120 IP).
- The Royals averaged 4.33 runs per 9.0 innings in his appearances, his most support since his rookie season (4.74/9 for Houston on 2007)...the 60 runs scored by KC matched the combined total scored while he was on the mound in 2009 and 2010.
- Opened his Royals career with 12.1 consecutive scoreless innings.
- Equaled his career high by striking out 11 in a 4-2 win at Seattle on September 10...according to Elias, became the third pitcher in Royals history to record at least 11 strikeouts without a walk (Luke Hochevar, 13 K's on July 25, 2009 vs. Texas and Zack Greinke, 12 K's on June 13 at Cincinnati).
- Following the campaign, was a member of an MLB All-Star team that toured Taiwan and won all five games...he started the third game, a 6-2 MLB win, allowing 1 run on 3 hits in 4.0 innings, walking 1 and striking out 2.

Paulino's Achievements

Year	Achievement
2007	First MLB win: September 25 at Cincinnati

Career Notes

- Among pitchers who have made at least 15 starts at Houston's Minute Maid Park, his average of 8.73 strikeouts per 9.0 innings (123.2 IP, 120 SO) ranks second to Bud Norris (8.79) entering 2012.
- Since he made his debut in 2007, his 3.37 runs of support average per 9.0 innings entering 2012 is the lowest in all of baseball among active pitchers with 300 or more innings and at least one start.
- Made his first career Opening Day roster in 2010 for the Astros and began the campaign as the fifth starter.
- Allowed just 4 home runs in 91.2 innings in 2010, averaging 0.39 home runs per 9.0 innings, which ranked eighth-best among all Major League hurlers with at least 75.0 innings.
- Went a career-high 8.0 innings in three straight starts from May 30 to June 9, 2010 becoming the first Astros hurler since Roy Oswalt (2008) with three consecutive 8.0-plus inning starts.
- After missing the entire 2008 campaign with the exception of 1 rehab appearance due to a pinched nerve in his right arm, returned in 2009 to strike out 93 in 97.2 innings over 23 games (17 starts)...the 93 strikeouts were the most by an Astros rookie since 2003 when Brad Lidge struck out 97 and Jeriome Robertson struck out 99.
- Was just 3-11 during his 2009 campaign, but lost 4 starts in a 6-start stretch from August 23-September 20 when the Astros failed to plate a run for him while he was in the game...the 6-start stretch with no runs scored covering 29.1 innings was the longest for a pitcher who made at least 6 starts since Cleveland's Mike Paul (33.0 innings) in 1969 (Elias Sports Bureau).
- His 93 strikeouts in 2009 were fifth in the N.L. among rookies.
- Made his Major League debut on September 5, 2007 at Milwaukee in a relief appearance.
- From 2006-08, rated as having the "Best Fastball" among all Astros prospects by Baseball America.
- Originally signed by Houston out of the club's Venezuelan Academy as a shortstop.

Career Notes

- Since becoming a full-time closer on July 31, 2007, Soria has made good on 150-of-167 opportunities for a 89.8% success rate, which is third among all Major League closers in that span (min. 100 save ops.), behind future Hall of Famer Mariano Rivera (92.1) and Tigers' closer Jose Valverde (90.4).
- Enters 2012 third on the Royals all-time list with 160 saves.
- The 2010 Bruce Rice Royals Pitcher of the Year ended the campaign with a career-high 43 saves, two rescues back of A.L. leader Rafael Soriano of Tampa Bay and also two saves shy of the Royals' single-season record held by Dan Quisenberry (1983) and Jeff Mongtomery (1993)...was 43 for 46 in save opportunities.
- Recorded his third straight season with 30 or more saves in 2010, becoming the first Royal to post back-to-back-to-back seasons with 30 or more saves since Jeff Montgomery from 1991 to 1993...Montgomery and Dan Quisenberry each had five 30-plus save seasons for KC.
- Selected to his second A.L. All-Star team (also 2008), but did not appear in the game in Anaheim...is 1 of 6 Mexican-born players to be named to multiple All-Star Games...Fernando Valenzuela paces the list with 6 selections.
- Set Royals record by converting 36 saves in a row from May 13-September 30, 2010 before blowing a save on the final day of the season on October 3 vs. Tampa Bay...destroyed the previous mark of 24 straight by Jeff Montgomery in 1993...the blown save against the Rays also halted Joakim's club-record 23.2 scoreless innings streak by a reliever.
- Recorded his 94th career save on April 25, 2010 vs. Minnesota, breaking Aurelio Lopez' record for a Mexican-born pitcher.
- Posted his 100th career save on May 26, 2010 vs. Texas...according to Elias, became the sixth-youngest in MLB history to 100 saves.
- Posted 11.72 strikeouts per 9 innings in 2009, the highest single-season ratio in franchise history among pitchers with at least 50.0 IP...the mark ranked third in the Majors among pitchers with 50.0 or more innings that season...the previous best for a Kansas City pitcher was 10.34 by Scott Service in 1998...Robinson Tejeda also topped Service with 10.63 strikeouts per 9 innings in 2009.
- Led the Majors in 2009 with 5 saves of 2.0 or more innings...no other pitcher recorded more than two.
- Represented Mexico at the 2009 World Baseball Classic, working 2.0 scoreless innings in a pair of outings.
- His 42 saves in 2008 were the second-most in the A.L. (Francisco Rodriguez-LAA, 62), the third-most in baseball and the fourth-best single-season mark in Royals franchise history.
- Posted 42 saves in 45 opportunities in 2008 for a 93.3 conversion rate, good for third-best in the Majors behind Brad Lidge (41-for-41, 100%) and Mariano Rivera (39-for-40, 97.5%)...93.3% was the best pct. in Royals franchise history.
- In 2008, became 1 of 14 closers in Major League history (min. 30 saves) to record more saves (42) than hits allowed (39)...accomplished 16 times, as a pair of closers (Dennis Eckersley and Armando Benitez) did it twice.
- Set a single-season record for saves by a Mexican-born closer in 2008...broke the mark of 28 set by Detroit's Juan Acevedo in 2002.
- Opponents hit just .170 against him in 2008, the second-best mark in Royals history for a pitcher with at least 30.0 innings (Robinson Tejeda-2008, .163)...his opponent batting average was the fourth-best in baseball (min. 50 IP).

- In 2008, posted a 0.77 ERA (35.0 IP, 3 ER) at home, the third-best mark in baseball (min. 30 IP)...the total is the best home ERA in KC franchise history among pitchers with at least 30 home innings.
- Opponents hit .094 (13-for-139) against him with 2 strikes in 2008, the best mark in the A.L. and second to the Cubs' Carlos Marmol (.074) in the Majors.
- He had a streak from April 2-26, 2008 in which he retired 24 consecutive batters.
- Worked 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings to begin the 2008 season, coming up 0.2 of an inning shy of Hipolito Pichardo's 1997 club record.
- He opened 2008 with 13 consecutive saves to establish a club record, breaking Al Hrabosky's previous team mark of 11-for-11 to start the 1978 season...blew his first save chance on June 7, 2008 at New York (AL).
- Was signed to a 3-year contract extension through 2011 with 3 additional club option seasons on May 17, 2008.
- Was named to his first Major League All-Star game on July 6, 2008...worked 1.2 innings allowing 2 hits and 2 walks with 2 K's...he fanned David Wright in his first inning of work, then K'd Dan Uggla with the bases loaded in the 12th inning.
- He tied Jeff Montgomery's 1993 pre-All-Star break franchise record of 25 saves in 2008.
- Among Royals rookies with at least 65.0 innings, his 2.48 ERA in 2007 was the lowest in the previous 39 years of Royals baseball.
- The 17 saves in 2007 led all Major League rookies by 12 over Boston's Hideki Okajima.
- Held opponents to a .187 (46-for-246) average in 2007 as he struck out 75 in just 69.0 innings, recording 9.78 strikeouts per 9 innings, tied for the Major League lead among rookie relievers (Ryan Rowland-Smith, SEA).
- Allowed just 3 home runs (all to righties) in 69.0 innings pitched in 2007...was 1 of just 6 pitchers in baseball to allow 3 or fewer homers and toss that many innings.
- Earned the save over the Twins on April 22, 2007...closed out the win for fellow countryman Jorge De La Rosa, marking just the 11th time in MLB history that Mexican pitchers picked up both the win and save in the same game...the duo accomplished the feat again on May 2 vs. Los Angeles.
- Established a team season high with 20.1 consecutive scoreless innings from May 22-July 21, 2007 (covering 18 games)...fell just 2 innings short of the Royals record by a reliever (22.1 by Rusty Meacham in 1994).
- Led the Mexican Winter League in 2006 in wins and strikeouts and finished 2nd in ERA...tossed just the third perfect game in Mexican League history on December 9, 2006 against Hermosillo...he struck out 9 and threw 101 pitches.
- Missed the entire 2003 season recovering from Tommy John surgery on his right elbow.

We are a true baseball family. Within the Minor Leagues, my daughter works in promotions, my husband was a groundskeeper and I am a merchandise manager. My husband experienced a life changing medical event that has left him with little hope to ever return to his job. The Baseball Assistance Team kept us from losing our home. I honestly don't know what I would have done without them!

At the conclusion of Brett's career, he was the only player in Major League history to amass more than 3,000 hits, 300 home runs, 600 doubles, 100 triples and 200 stolen bases. He was the first player to win batting titles in three decades (1976, 1980, 1990) and retired as the A.L. career record holder for most intentional walks (229).

A 13-time All-Star, Brett is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was the American League MVP in 1980, finished as the MVP runner up in 1976 and 1985, was a Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner in 1985 and was crowned the Royals Player of the Year eight times.

Brett hit .390 in his MVP season, posting the highest batting average since Ted Williams' .406 mark in 1941.

His number 20 was retired and he was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1995.

White claimed the Rawlings Gold Glove award six straight seasons from 1977 to 1982 and missed an unprecedented ninth award in 1988 after committing just 4 errors that season and leading the league in fielding percentage.

White's Royals Hall of Fame portrait

He was selected to the All-Star team five times and earned the starting nod at second base in 1979. White, who ranks seventh all-time in career fielding percentage among second basemen, was named the Royals' Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986.

A native of Kansas City, White was tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980 after hitting .545 (6-for-11) and driving in three runs to lead Kansas City to its first-ever World Series by defeating the New York Yankees.

In the 1985 World Series, White led all players with six RBI, hitting three doubles and a home run as KC rallied from a three games to one deficit to beat St. Louis.

Following his career-best 1986 season, White was selected to the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan in the offseason. He was also named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team.

The first-ever graduate of the experimental Royals Academy, White ranks second on the club's career charts in games (2,324), at bats (7,859) and hits (2,006). He also stands in the top five in career runs, doubles, triples, home runs, stolen bases, total bases, and extra base hits. One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers, he compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while skippering the Royals.

He guided the club in one of the most remarkable and endearing comebacks in Major League postseason history, defeating Toronto in the ALCS and St. Louis to win the 1985 World Series. His skills and ability to maneuver the lineup and roster played an important role in the club's success, as he capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff and maximized an offense that ranked 13th in average and runs scored.

Howser's Hall of Fame portrait

Howser's World Series season was quite an encore for a manager who was named the ESPN Manager of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writer's Manager of the Year balloting in 1984. His 1984 edition was hampered by injuries throughout the year as his starting lineup was together for only 50 of the 162 games. Despite the injuries, he guided the Royals from a sixth-place standing and a 40-51 record on July 18, to capture the A.L. West crown by compiling an astonishing 44-25 record over the last 10 weeks.

Overall, he compiled a 507-425 (.544) record at the big league level after guiding the New York Yankees to 103 wins in 1980, becoming just the fourth manager in baseball to win 100 games in his first year.

Howser began his professional career after twice earning All-America honors at Florida State. The 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year with the Kansas City A's, he was a member of the 1961 All-Star team and enjoyed an eight-year Major League playing career.

REMEMBERING THE ROYALS ACADEMY

Former Royals owner Ewing Kauffman challenged the preconceived notions of the baseball world in 1970 with the creation of the Royals Baseball Academy.

"In a few years this will be called Kauffman's folly or they will be calling me the Branch Rickey of the '70s," Kauffman said.

The Academy, which ran 12 months a year, was designed to supply additional talent to the Royals organization by training athletes in Sarasota, Fla. The mission of the academy was to groom raw athletes into baseball players.

The Academy opened its doors on August 10, 1970 with 42 original players. The campus, which also doubled as the Royals spring home, featured five playing fields, a 50-room dormitory, offices, lecture halls, laboratories, tennis courts and a swimming pool. Former Royals Scouting Director Syd Thrift (a future Yankees General Manager) was named as the director of the Academy.

Royals Hall of Famer Frank White joined the Academy in 1970 and was the first member to graduate to the Majors in 1973. White credits the Academy with instilling fundamentals which turned him into one of the best defensive second basemen in baseball history.

Despite the success of Frank White and 13 other graduates who played in the Majors, including U.L. Washington, dwindling class sizes and the cost of the Academy eventually led to its closing in May, 1974.

Steve Busby

April 27, 1973 at Detroit
Kansas City 3, Detroit 0

In just his 10th Major League start, 23-year old Steve Busby recorded the first no-hitter in club history by shutting down Detroit on April 27, 1973. His no-hitter was the first in Tiger Stadium since 1952. He allowed 6 walks and struck out 4 in the 3-0 win.

In his next start, Busby allowed just 1 hit in 5.2 innings of work in a 5-3 win at Milwaukee on May 4. Busby picked up where he left off, tossing 5.1 hitless innings until Dave May homered in the sixth inning. Busby didn't allow any more hits but was removed later that inning because of wildness.

The Royals Autograph Policy states that credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment from players AT ALL TIMES. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and could bar future use.

The Writing Press Box is located on Level 6 at Kauffman Stadium. Space is available for members of the working media ON ASSIGNMENT ONLY. Seats in the lower level will be assigned to members of the Kansas City BBWAA and other visiting BBWAA members. Other media will be assigned to row two.

The Broadcast Press Box is located on Level 4 at Kauffman Stadium. Radio and television broadcasts will initiate from this level.

Wireless Internet Access is available in the main press box free of charge. Please contact a Royals Media Relations member if you are having trouble connecting. In addition, some high-speed lines are provided.

The Press Room is located behind to the writing press box on Level 6 for a pregame meal ($10.00 charge) and refreshments and is open for the media with appropriate credentials approximately 2 hours prior to the game. Complete NOTES, STATISTICAL INFORMATION and LINEUPS are available approximately 3 hours prior to the game toward the back of the writing press box and in the hallway of the broadcast press level.

Interview periods are arranged prior to and following Royals games through the Royals Media Relations Department.

Pregame: The manager, coaches and players are generally accessible before batting practice on the field and in the clubhouse. Players are not available during stretching and batting practice, and pregame interviews should not interfere with the players specific game preparations. Manager Ned Yost is available to the media before games in the Royals dugout, usually around 4:15 p.m. prior to 7:10 p.m. games. He may also be available before the clubhouse opens upon special request through the Media Relations Department. We request that reporters and broadcasters leave the field and dugout area at the conclusion of batting practice and that photographers report to their assigned photo positions.

Manager Postgame: The Royals will conduct a postgame interview with the manager in the interview room on Level 1 immediately following each Royals home game. The postgame interview room is specifically designed for, but not limited to, the electronic media. This is the only area where the electronic media may interview the manager postgame. There will be no postgame interviews allowed in the manager's office unless notified by a media relations representative. Postgame interviews with all personnel should be related to the game and not of the feature variety.

Photographers will be assigned to photo bays on the field at either end of each dugout or the bay located in the main press box. Photographers in the dugout field boxes should leave between innings only. Photos are allowed during batting practice, but photographers should remain in foul territory in the area behind the first and third base bags on the dirt warning track. Photographers should assume their assigned positions at the conclusion of batting practice. Wireless Internet is available.

The Royals Clubhouse will be open to the media with clubhouse credentials for a period of 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. The clubhouse will be closed for the remainder of pre-game when the Royals are on the field for batting practice. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. For postgame interviews, the clubhouse will open approximately 10 minutes following the game. The Royals clubhouse will be closed between games of a doubleheader. There will be occasions when the Royals may request the clubhouse be cleared for team meetings and we ask your cooperation at these times. The players' lounge, training room, coaches' office adjacent to manager's office and conditioning areas are closed to everyone except players, coaches and Royals officials.

Denny Matthews, Announcer

Denny Matthews, the 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner, was honored during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies in Cooperstown on July 29, 2007. He became a member of the Royals' Hall of Fame in August of 2004 and will celebrate his 44th season behind the microphone for the club in 2012. The "Voice of the Royals" has broadcast exclusively for the same team, without interruption, in six different decades. Denny is a 2005 Missouri Sports Hall of Fame selection.

In 2008, Matthews became just one of five announcers in the history of MLB to spend an entire career with just one team and log at least 40 consecutive seasons behind the microphone. He joins Vin Scully (Brooklyn/Los Angeles, 62), Jaime Jarrin (Los Angeles, 53), Bob Prince (Pittsburgh, 48) and Jack Buck (St. Louis, 47) as the only broadcasters to accomplish the feat.

Matthews has seen more Royals games than anyone else during his 43 years with Kansas City. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the No. 2 announcer position alongside the late Bud Blattner prior to the Royals initial season in 1969, before taking over the No. 1 job following the 1975 season. He teamed with Fred White on the Royals Radio Network from 1974-1998 before Ryan Lefebvre joined him in the booth in 1999 through 2007. Bob Davis and Steve Stewart have served as Denny's partners since the beginning of the 2008 season.

The veteran broadcaster has also lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and 1985 World Series. He also worked with Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell, calling the CBS broadcast of the 1982 ALCS between the Angels and Brewers.

Matthews is active in the Kansas City community and dedicates his time and resources to several area charities, including the SAFE program, a charity that supports families of fallen policemen, firemen and emergency workers, as well as Operation Lifesaver, a railroad crossing safety and awareness program. He is also the author the two books: the 2004, "Tales from the Royals Dugout", and the 2009 "Hi, Anybody" and co-author of the 1999 book "Play by Play-25 Years of Royals on Radio."

Born in Tempe, Ariz., and a 1978 graduate of Bullard High School in Fresno, Calif., Hudler was a 1999 inductee into the Fresno Hall of Fame. Remembering "Splitt" (1946-2011)

The Royals lost a legend and a friend on May 25, 2011. Paul Splittorff, a Royals Hall of Famer and the club's all-time winningest pitcher, lost his courageous battle with melanoma.

"Splitt" joined the broadcast booth after retiring from the game in 1984 and worked for 24 years as an analyst for Royals television.

He joined the Royals organization in 1968 and compiled a 166-143 record with a 3.81 ERA in 429 games during his 15-year playing career. In addition to recording the most wins in Royals history, the left-hander also owns the club record for starts (392) and innings pitched (2,554.2). He became Kansas City's first 20-game winner in 1973 and was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1987.

Splittorff is survived by his wife, Lynn, daughter, Jennifer, and son, Jamie.

The Royals 44th Spring Training season in club history will be their 10th at the club's facility in Surprise, Ariz.

The Royals and Texas Rangers share a $48 million, 10,500-seat multi-purpose Recreation and Major League Spring Training Campus on land owned by the City of Surprise. In addition, the city is using the facilities for adult and youth recreation programs, community events and programs, special events and meeting facilities.

The stadium complex and baseball practice fields are incorporated into a master-planned municipal center, including administrative offices, recreation/aquatic center, 23,000-square-foot library, and 35-40 acre passive park.

Surprise is approximately 35 minutes northwest of Phoenix, past Sun City West off Highway 60. The complex is located on 125 acres in the vicinity of Bullard Avenue and Greenway Road.

Populous (formerly HOK), an internationally-renowned Kansas City architectural firm devoted to creating exceptional sports facilities, was designated to design the facility.

There is so much to be excited about in our hometown, including our baseball team. We love summer. We love baseball. And we love being a partner of the Kansas City Royals.
